Yeah,thanks.

You can publish it and with my name too.

Well,

do you take seriously those comments?

What is the purpose of the excercise,anyway?

All best.

Oh,
Your global leader became creater of the Universe.
Waky waky!!
Hey, hey!
What is what and who is who in your poems?
All mixed up, isn't it?
Economy is not wise, is not secure....My Dear!.
Dreams? Yeah ....again.
We do not design them.
We have them or not.
After 30s our dreams are old and of the past.
Fresh air is required into your writings.
Good luck!

Thank u for sharing of living model of peace in between 2 animals. Of course, when pure love dominant among the hearts of humanity all type of darkness of jealousy, hatred-ness and enmities abolished like sunlight replace the darkness of the night. Pure love has a great power of its Originality, how to achieve it and why there is its laciness is other questions to address. Moreover, when there is internal harmony among the humanity and their Creator, it reflect over other creations as well and then even wild animals instead of attacking on pet and useful animals they care and have a good friendship like u sent the images of polar bear and dog. Once there was a time when wolf and jackals were not attacking on the sheep/goat/lambs of the companion of the last Prophet and their delegate came to him to spare their voluntary share as it is their food as well but they didn't have courage to attack on their animals..long story..may be I'll tell u when will meet next time....

Salam Mohammed,

Your writings are pretty cool! Great ideas and way of expressing yourself!

I have to say great idea, putting your random writings in gumtree!

Post some more, cause these are really enjoyable writings.

It is true we should be responsible for humanity and care for God and not the other way around i.e. hold God responsible for humanity and care about ourselves! well spot on for that!

Keep up the good work!

M who loves M and J and G

1. Thank you for sharing, you obviously have put a lot of yourself, knowledge and skill into these writings as well as spirit.

Happy journey to you ☺

Kind Regards

2. lot's of words certainly you express yourself in them. I met one Scottish writer in Newtown. His advice was try to bring up the essence of your writing from 1000s words to a few. To do that one needs to be secular, still spiritual, but secular. You are already cosmopolitan and perhaps a bit of shifting to the left required. One more remark. We human beings are not sweet on this planet. We became pests, very nasty pests eating all on our way of life.

Hey Moh,

That's all good in theory, but in practice the individuality and different ambition/competitive levels of people come out.

I've been in senior management for 35 years. You can pay people to work as a team and bonus them as a group even. But then you get the lazy ones and the high achieved in clashes. In the end, it might work on the rugby field, but not in the office.

So the way corporations get a team effort is through occasional group workshops, but pay on individual performance.

Hello Mohammad

Thank you for your beautiful words, understanding and poetry. More time needs to be devoted by me to read it again and all of it..... and I feel honoured to share in the messages that come through you.....many of which I find beautiful and we share a SIMPLE yearning for Peace and Beauty and Harmony. We may use different words and yet the message is the same.

Greetings dear Mohammad

.. more than 'chance' there is a "Law of Synchronicity" which happens when Divine and/or Universal energy/ies comes together. When this happens, things take place that are Guided or .... synchronistic and is always significant.... this is one of my favourite 'Universal Laws'

Continued Blessings to You & Your Family

G~Sh

Greetings Mohammad

I LOVE the way your express yourself with the words you use. It is good that words do not hinder people from understanding 😊

You are so Heart based.

Here is a Gaelic Blessing [Irish]

May the road Rise to meet you
May the Wind be always at your back
May the Sun Shine warm upon your face
And the rains fall soft Upon your Fields
And until we meet again
May God hold You in the palm of His Hand.

Say it all again in a few lines.

Writing so much you wrote not much.

It shows how out of touch is religious touch.

.Simplicity is the answer.

An Ode to the Flower... with a scientific slant. I enjoyed reading this informative ode that gave me insights into your studies through your examination of nature in relation to your perspective on the world and some good ideas on how to improve it. Global open message for so called wide range of Muslims like myself!

This is addressed to:

From patients to healthy!

From poor to rich!

From beggars to kings!

From youth to mature!

From women to men!

From ignorant to scholars!

Where are those Muslims patients of model of full patience like Ayub (p.b.u.h)? Where are those healthy Muslims like Abu Bakar (rata) who were searching the chances of service of his public like cleaning the house of old sick women at early dawn time, milking the goats/sheep's of locality on a voluntary basis. Where are those poor Muslims, who were hiding their poverty from humanity like Bilal and Abu Hurairra (ra) and asking only from their Lord? Where are those rich Muslims, who were spending all of their wealth and keeping nothing for themselves even for their breakfast like Aisha (ra)? Where are those Muslims beggars, who were begging in Sijda (prostration) only in front of their Creator and Sustainer like Ali (ra)? Where are those Muslims kings, who were selected by public although they didn't want to, like Abu Bakar and Ummar (ra)? There was one spiritual leader, who was beaten due to not acceptance of offer of the government key position and he was told that nation needs your service and you still refused this ruling position. Where are those Muslims business men who were doing their business only for service of community not for their own profit? Where are those Muslim rulers, who sacrifice his life and didn't fight with opposition group of the public? Choosing, to instead have mercy upon people, regardless of owing the power/force to use for his defense like Usman (rata). He was noble and very generous companion of Hazrut Muhammad (pbuh), who used to recite the Holy letter/book/Quran (message revealed over last messenger), enemies entered in his house and the pages of the Quran became colorful with his blood. Where are those Muslims ruler like Haroon-o-Rashid and Ummur bin Abdulaziz, who (later) handover his personal wealth to the public commonwealth treasure when selected a khaleefa and also requested to his wife (who was princes before married) that pick one option either to live with me or separate. If you wish to live with me then please you also submit your personal wealth in form of jewelry etc. to the public commonwealth treasure for the benefit of the public. When One lady came to visit the palace in expectation of more decoration she said what happen to your house instead of more furniture and contents it became empty after becoming a King and Queen. Furthermore she objected to the labor man who was mixing clay with water for the maintenance of the palace and looking towards the queen. She said why is he looking to you. She said, he is my husband, "Ummur bin Abdulaziz, a King". At his time, he was patrolling by himself at night time when people were sleeping peacefully. One night, he saw one tent outside of the city, from-where crying sound of women in a pain was coming so he approached to find out the reason. Her husband informed him that she is in labor pain and no one is here for her help, so straight away he came at his house and informed his wife that there is a golden opportunity of service for you, i.e. to help a poor lady in the outside of the town. So both of them came back and were equipped with first-aid stuff of that time. His wife (queen) went inside the tent and handled the delivery case as a nurse. Meanwhile the husband who was the noble of all the kings of that time cooked a warm dessert for the women of newly delivered baby on wooden fire camp. This man was known as “Amirul-momaneen”. This means, being a muslim king/elected leader that carries fear from His Creator. Moreover, it also involves the willingness to face one’s Creator on the day of resurrection with one’s hands tied up on their back, till all accountability of fulfilling the right of each person living in his country regardless of the public members hi/her belief/culture/colour/race etc is justified fairly to the Almighty.

Think think together how to have our ideal global leader

Think think together how to have our ideal global leader who must care each individual among us day and night directly or indirectly. Who has broad vision regarding betterment of health, education, transport, agriculture, science & technology, economy and establishment of more sustainable social system for all of us. Of course, it will be greatly appreciated by everyone regarding the right positive investments policy plan of an ideal global leader to support an ideal infrastructure for the current people of the world and even for our future generations. Real Designer of the global Universe may grant to such ideal global leader more wisdom to nourish His creation in a superb way for shining of the countries and its dwellers to lead the world towards peaks of the real success, peace and tranquility, ameen.

What a marvelous concern is that how we move the world forward wisely with a strong and secure tool of intellectual economy that will deliver first-class humanity services on the surface of our mother land that can create better opportunities for the further nurturing development of the planet.

Now-a-days, most evidently, the public is looking forward to see such ideal global leader who can excel sincerely towards our national dreams! Our greatest wish is that the Almighty Creator above us may shower His assistance flowering aroma over each step of the ideal global leader's political and personal life. As a result ideal global leader can come forward easily for the better service of His humanity, ameen.

A novel idea of belonging

Why not we would consider ourselves for responsible of care of whole humanity? Why not I belong to myself to whole humanity and all humanity belongs to me? Actually, we're for everyone and all are for us as we're for the Creator and He is for us. So who is ready to step forward to cultivate the infinite seeds of peaceful global harmony on the land of the hearts of whole humanity with sincere and wise tools of gardening? Whoever raise their hand first, will receive the first prize of appreciation from the fragrance of origin of the +ve universal potential and kinetic energies here and hereafter as well. Hence come on to grow our endless consciousness wisely and friendly.

Our robust society!

There are very few geographical hearts, who embrace a wide range of faces, minds and souls on this planet. No doubt, Australia has proud on its unique characteristics in this aspect of heritage and democratic traditions setup of robust cohesive society based on multicultural mechanics. Therefore, seeds of pure harmony cultivate rapidly on this fertilized soil of diverse land of modest hearts and courteous manner. Of course, it acts as a catalyst for the rest of the world to promote global peace via sincere collaboration in the establishment of genuine peace, justice and understanding of each other with respect and care.

Where is a robust society?

Physiology and anatomy of an ideal society:

Where are those geographical hearts, who embrace a wide range of faces, minds and souls on this planet? Who has proud on its unique characteristics in this aspect of heritage and democratic traditions setup of robust cohesive society based on multicultural mechanics? On which part of the global village, seeds of pure harmony can cultivate rapidly due to fertilized soil of diverse land of modest hearts and courteous manners? Of course, it would act as a catalyst for the rest of the world to promote global peace via sincere collaboration in the establishment of genuine peace, justice and understanding of each other with respect and care. Under the umbrella of such a robust society people of all thoughts can organize inclusive macro-(interfaith, -interspiritual & -intergoodwill) like a bunch of flowers on daily, weekly, monthly and yearly basis. Therefore, each individual of this ideal society of the world deserves a special respect and tranquility in return of their significant contribution in the establishment of such a novel society. Generally, there are several steps to understand the society structure and analyze its need at each era to lead towards an ideal role of model living nation. What is the mechanism of stimulation of multicultural flavor worldwide in such a way that each person cares the rest of the world? In this fashion the rest of the world looks after each individual like a one genuine sincere empathetic family which is solely aimed to set up for nourishment and comfort of the present humanity as well as upcoming generations.

How to process your dream into reality?

Summary:

- 1. To plan your dream and write it down*
- 2. To think about its cost*
- 3. To think about strategy to achieve it*
- 4. To think about level of activation energy (inhibiting factors/barriers)*
- 5. How to overcome these barriers*
- 6. Cycle of its remembrance as well as date of initiation and destination*
- 7. Analysis of your progress*
- 8. Revision if need*

First of all, design your dream in a nice civilized fashion; develop it in detail with decoration of imaginary diamonds. Express it on the piece of safe paper with your own valuable pen, beautiful hands and unique eyes. Once again analyze its final product in the light of your novel intellectuality. Look carefully on its cost, strategy to achieve, overcome resistance barriers (inhibiting factors), how to reduce activation energy for conversion of reactants into product of this dream. To invest your precious efforts capsulated with self discipline. Flavor it with rosy sweetness of glucose and fructose of humorous sincerity and honesty. Homogenize with special juice of confidence until integrate with multicultural society completely. By this way previous fear, doubts and negative psyche will be separated from the resolution of your mind and personality.

Incubate it for backing at optimal conditions of scientific-spirituality until the dream develops and cook properly, so you can touch it firmly. Then please decorate it with global sympathy, truthfulness and generosity. Now cut into generous pieces like a cake pieces. Then share with others if you want to help others.

Love with our land

Love with our land, its creations either living in or out, above or below or flying over it. Love with our land, O my dear human beings; do you know that how our land and its creations particularly global humanity are thirsty for a sincere love?

What is a sincere love? Real sympathy, affection, 100% pure from all types of materialism either in obvious or hidden form of benefits.

True love & humanitarian cooperation is to spare a time to look after people of all over the world but start from surroundings one within our home, street, town, community and so on.

Love with our land, Our families, relatives, friends and neighbors are usually provide us this opportunity of service to boost our spiritual energy after performing the volunteer jobs for them with full honesty and sincerity.

Love with our land, if we want to recognize real Nature and Creator of our beloved land and whole universe in which it exists, then we should respect, care and love with Thou creations particularly most honorable creation, i.e. human beings living over the land.

Therefore, please learn this novel loving technology to cultivate and propagate it for the development of one uniform global peaceful and natural spiritual family over the land under one sky and one surface of one same planet. Who is ready for it right now?

Love with our land, if we want to have our value in Thou sight, then love with land as a whole with its all eco-components from nanoscale creations to macro- and huge creations only for seeking Thou pleasure sincerely and honestly if we want to save our land from all types of radial destructions.

Simile of flower

O' Flower, Flower, Flower!!!

O my dear flower, how beautiful you are?

O my dear flower, how nice shady & attracting colours do you have?

O my dear flower, how pleasant fragrance is stored in you and spreading around in the air of your gardens, meeting rooms and list is on & on...

O my dear flower, how many mL/day of H<sub>2</sub>O has been sucked up by your roots to nourish you, keep your petals freshly through xylem and phloem bundles due to their capillary action? That water which is the origin of each life, no water...no life, therefore, it is passing over lips of every drinker at each time.

O my dear flower, how beautiful is your reality? Who created you from a tiny seed, which was buried under the soil one day, then followed by the ecosystem composed of rain, sun, stars, galaxies, black hole & gases etc. activated for your germination from plumule, radicals and cotyledons in the gardens and bushes while sperm, ovum, equal to zygote in placenta of a lovely foetus (flowery baby, a living symbol of true affection of two lovely walking & talking flowers). O my dear flower, but oh the miracles didn't stop here!

O my dear flower, your beauty reflects the beauty of your best Designer! O my dear flower, how pretty is the Nature due to your existence! O my dear flower, do you know how much knowledge are you providing to my botanical, phytochemistry, pharmacognosy and herbal therapeutic sciences on every research time?

O my dear flower, pl tell me the address of that best ideal flowery community in which each one is looking after welfare of others more than him/herself based on 100% pure sincerity. O my dear flower, what a lovely community it is in which every one is thinking for providing benefits to others without personal interests! O my dear flower, I wish to see such a creative, productive and peaceful global bunch of colonies, in which each flower should be colorful with 100% best moral pleasant & enjoyable characters!

O my dear flower, you're full of chlorophyls, caroteen & other natural pigments. O my dear flowers in form of a bunch like an intellectual bunch of superb brains through a collaborative bonding of the creative projects!

O my dear flower, your word is so small... but its wave of influencing affections are yet so large in feelings! A true sweetie word can fill the space of lost sincerity & true emotion of real search! O my dear flower, no matter where we belong but we should have an identical noble humanity plus unity and an eternal harmonisty!

O my dear flower, we may have our disagreements, argues & concerns on our some actions, reports & thoughts of each other sometime BUT our true-fellowship is a unique bond that lasts through it all. O my dear flower, are you looking at the natural beauty of our Great Nature! Botany, Physiology, herbal pharmacology and Psychology of the universe around us for our service!

O my dear flower, our Australia has both stunning and unique plants (above and below the ocean) that not only are visually beautiful and aid in our psychological well being and happiness by seeing them through eyes, its retina, optic nerve, which clicks dopamine, a neurotransmitter of the mid brain for a natural pleasure, but could participate an important role in our physical health too. Wow!!!

O my dear flower, I'm seeker of the real beauty of the Nature through the real truth to get real success, peace of mind, neuron cells, synapses and neurotransmitters to achieve the tranquility in this life and hereafter! Can you please guide me in this sincere path?

O my dear flower, please remember on this harmony time that we're one homogenous identical world leading Australian Nation, therefore, please don't forget about our national multicultural identity and unity.

O my dear flower, each of us should be tolerance towards addressing any type of the challenges facing by us at any time, any where in vivo or in vitro. The digestion and absorption of these types of remarks can strengthen our real foundations.

O my dear flower, let us goodbye to the age of division and disintegration in order to usher in a new era of unique novel Australian model of unity and dignity from end of last year 2008 to onward, so become a practical example for the rest of the world to globalize modern community.

O my dear flower, by this way, our good public in this esteemed, unique multicultural community and governance powers can eliminate injustice and nastiness for the sake of the comprehensive worldwide development that eradicates humanity miseries.

O my dear flower, as it is obvious from the history that negative extremism mislead to stressful destruction while positively constructive & creative unity leads to the fruitful productivity and it must be achieved through tolerance, true affection, forgiveness to each other, while not through any type of violence in between any groups of this great multicultural flowery nation.

O my dear flower, you've dual but multiple pivotal rolling characters on all different occasions from birth to termination of life point through maturation cycles of happiness as well as grieve to stimulate the pleasure as well as absorb the sadness respectively. O my dear flower, how multiple cures are in yourself. Cheers you and all admirals to your super Originator!!

M loves with J

Who is M and who is J? J is lord of whom who believes on him as a son of father. M is son of man, "Abdullah". J came first M after both passed away but J will come again in this world one day to establish a peace and justice but no one know about the exact day and hour except He. Both showed different miracles to the world at different times and places. He sent both for guidance of human beings.

Special soul of J reveled from heaven to earth over Miriam through Gabriel while body and soul of M travelled along with him from earth to the heaven to visit the Lord of lords. J was able to talk with people from the lap of his mum while M was started novel communication in his 40. J has miracles of cure to epilepsy patients, blind by birth, fish meal was enough for huge numbers of people in one setting, converse of dead to alive and clay birds fly by his spiritual blow. While water came out like fountains from the fingers of M, moon divided into 2 pieces, trees walked to provide a curtain, travelled from Mecca to Sidratul Muntaha VIA Baytul Muqadus within one night physically and spiritually without Jet and rocket. So M loves with M and J because both loves with their only one Lord either name Father or Allah or God or Jehovah and what so ever. M loves with J! M loves with J! M loves with J!

I you and why you?

I you and why you? I am looking after you, what about you, O my Lord you are the Master of all beauty, fashion and design of our soul, mind and body. You are owner of all charms, sincerity and treasures. I see you everywhere, where ever my sight can reach, through the beauty of your creations. When your creation is so beautiful, how beautiful you are!

No charm of life without your mercy, without your planning, without your wisdom of making different genders, different hormones, enzymes, protein, lipids, carbohydrates, nucleic acids, vitamins and minerals. O my Lord! be happy from us, bless our people and the whole humanity with your satisfaction and not be angry for ever. Your anger is unbearable while your pleasure with us is our only true happiness. You are our creator & sustainer! How can we deny your beauty reflecting in every flower of each garden, of miraculous living organism's limbs in ocean, land and sky?

What a pretty landscaping of the geographical land to our spiritual and physiological body land is! Look around and see the earth, the moon, the sun and the sky. O Lord! please open my eyes so I can truly see the existence of what's surrounding me...Can we not see how the planets look like diamonds in the sky? Anyhow, your beauty is so dazzling... your greatness so esteemed...Oh my lord pl forgive us for eternity and ever more... You are the origin of light, peace and pure spirituality. We can not see without your granted light either by eye and heart or outside of our internal world. You're great and we're small, you're kind and generous and we're not so although should be as your representative on the surface of the earth. You're merciful, so please grant us mercy, bounties with out terms, kindness with out anger, constant Forgiveness.

When I'm alone, you are closer than the veins in my neck, so you and me only, therefore, I you and why you is very obvious. You are so open and shining that every one can see you but still most of your cells can't. How are you apparent but still mysterious? How are you attractive but still not for those who can't see you due to curtain of ozone layers? How you truthful but still most don't believe. How are you forgiver but still not repenting and turning back towards you? Your beauty, greatness, fashion, voice, power of hearing, healing and action are novel and green forever but still so many are not listening to you?

Why, where are you I you and why you? Please cure our spiritual and physical patients completely so they can recognize your power of healing and kindness, amen. Please remove worries and stress from innocent people of the world so they can recognize your power of neurological healing and generosity, ameen.

Global Warming

Hi every one breathing on this planet and worried about Global Warming, a hot topic of this era! May I remind about our internal cardiac physiological warming (Qi), spiritual and emotional warming may be linked with electromagnetic field around ourselves as well as around our planet to play important role in reflection of terrified rays from Sun and other universal radio-originators. Let's get on through various angles right now!

International Economists focusing on Economical approach of Climate Change for what, why, and how? May be it is obvious to all of us. Anyhow, no wonder that climate change is not a reaction of just one night or linked to some people of one locality but of course it is real fact throughout the globe and long term issue. There is increasing risk of serious irreversible eco-socio-reactions catalyst by climate changes under an umbrella of politics of general business.

The apparent consequences of climate change can threaten the essential elements of life on the surface of our earth in form of its effect on water level, availability of foodstuff, geographical changes due to environmental biodiversity.

Please look at the concentration of Carbon mono and dioxide levels with respect to instant results, long-term burden to the global economy, health of humanity and overall impact on our whole planet.

Anyhow, O my dears, think and think to come on an international solution for our this common problem through activating of our billion of neuron cells, their neurotransmitter, acetylcholine, its hydrolyzing enzyme, acetylcholinesterase at synaptical neurojunctions within nanosecond. Who is Creator of all this universe from dusty hot gases clouds, differentiated into different planets by differential densities, temperature pressure and gases such as Hydrogen, methane, carbon dioxide etc..

Who made ozone and its layers for our protection from harmful ultraviolet radiations, who is responsible for its reduction due to negative actions of violence, killing of innocents, jealousy, discrimination and other oppressive sins damaging humanospirtualitive-electromagnative unseen and undetective systems. So, what is the formula to achieve global peaceful, truthful, sincere scientific-socio-humorous and humanity caring medicine which improve our humano- immuno- spirtualitive-electromagnative unseen and undetective system to solve this global warming problem up to some significant effect?

So, we look after our natural resources more than our personnel assets, daily or weekly or monthly or at least yearly think how I can positively contribute in this aspect to save existing plant kingdom, grow more friendly plants, trees for production of fruits, vegetables and oxygen along with habitation of so many our native unique birds and animals. How we can save our electrical energy in our home through daily wisely use of compressed florescent tube lights and high star electrical appliance. Similarly in case of consumption of petrol, prior to turn the key at the time of starting the vehicle just to think regarding its necessity and other option of either walking or using public transport etc. Water is other Natural bounty and basic necessity of our life as it is the fundamental element of origin of each life, so we use it as much as minimum is enough to fulfill our need. Wasting of one drop of liquid has significant influence on its whole universal reservoir. Food, clothes, time, money, energy, and capabilities are all important personal wealth to be care otherwise we can ask their values from those who deprived from these wealth.

What is my understanding of teamwork?

Teamwork is very important in almost all disciplines particularly in Medical & Nursing sciences as one person can't be expert in each field of human health sector, so only team members can perform successfully. Cohesive team environment, discipline, honesty and caring each other (colleagues, patients/clients/residents & visitors) at work place are vital principles of an ideal team member. Documentation in a professional way is also a key factor in follow up and teamwork strategy. People who have sincere humour & friendly in nature are stress absorber in an active team. It can be exemplified by following instant creative writing on Team:

Team, team & a great team (GT)! What is a great team? Pool of intellectuality of homogeneous goal in the CNS flowing through million of nerves via neurotransmitters, acetylcholine, dopamine & serotonin in the environment of billion of other micro to macro player of bio-molecules in the field of muscular body to contract & relax in such a way to achieve the best goal in a best possible way with the coordination & collaboration of intra, inter & relative senses of great team members!

Where is that great team? How to make such a great team? Who can establish such a great team? What are the micros to macro skills of great team? What are the micros to macro skills of principles of recruitment of such a GT? What is adhesiveness, cohesiveness chemistry of such a GT & where its ingredients are available? O mankind! you're most welcome to listen the answers of series of these Q in my next session as may be I'm boring u know. Actually page as well as time is also over now.

Motto, motto and an urgent motto of today!

1. "Live simply & waste nothing either inside the lab or outside"
2. "Manage your money & time so we can get a sweet honey of scientific achievements of the world!"
3. "Care others sincerely and find your own care automatically"

Two unique messages of I

1. To unite good human beings from each culture and part of the world to welcome me when I'll appear again in this world for establishment of real peace and justice. The unity process of humanity is like picking of beautiful flowers from rose plants and bushes and then to extract their perfume for spreading over my feet and the way when I'll arrive again soon (*) in this world. *, may be couple of decades or centuries, who knows as compared to large time frame of the universe (date not remember may be in early 2009

2. O my believers, listen carefully, that the love of this worldly materials and my love can't be cherished in the same heart as water and fire can't hold in one vessel. Therefore, if you wish to follow me then love with me purely and act upon my education by following the real track established by me. Come on! To follow my steps, give your hand in my hand, so I'll assist you to cross over the stressful river of this world safely (Sunday 10th Jan 2010; ~10:09 AM).

Science, Science and O my Divine Science!

Do you remember, one day I was scattered in the form of particles in the earth, environment, light of Sun and stars? How did you play with me via process of evaporation of water, formation of clouds and travelling of these heavy dark clouds from oceans to the dry land by the power of wind? Then thunder and rain gave a new life to plant kingdom and happiness to the animals by grazing over green grass. By this way, eco-system, Agriculture, harvesting of crops, food processing and Biotechnological processing converted potential energy into harmonical energy of my parents, which transformed into zygote after fertilization of sperm and ovum.

Science, Science and O my Divine Science! How did you look after me during my embryonic developmental stage then at the time of departure from placental micro-world to current macro-world, where I'm walking and talking, eating and drinking, playing and enjoying with your biological research and enzymoic advancements?

Science, Science and O my Divine Science! Do you know one day definitely I'll forward to the next unseen hidden phase of spiritual-world, when my heart will not pump any more to supply fresh oxygenated blood to my cells any more. So please tell me in the light of your scientific histology, biochemistry, anatomy, physiology and all disciplines of biosciences that how my soul will survey there without present of food and water of this world so I can be well prepared for upcoming journey as well?

Science, Science and O my Divine Science! How amazing different colours of various flowers and beautiful clouds patterns of your science are there on the sky at the moment of 19th April 2009, which are so obvious for me in this
